

ROB TYLER

biography

Rob Tyler is a Graphic Designer and Filmmaker living and working in Portland Oregon. Working in both experimental and documentary film mediums, his work has been described as visually stunning and atmospherically beautiful.

His experimental short films, documentaries and animations have screened widely around the globe in various film festivals, art museums, and on television broadcasts. Tyler recently completed a collection of hand-drawn ambient 16mm film paintings entitled 'Color + Modulation'. This project took him seven years to complete and have since been displayed in various galleries and museums including the Museum of Modern Art in Rio De Janeiro Brazil. The DVD of 'Color + Modulation' is currently retailing at The Getty Center in Los Angeles and The Art Institute of Chicago, among others. Recently, UK based designer Peter Saville praised 'Color + Modulation' by selecting Tyler as a finalist in Colorcalm's International design contest.
